FAQ	20, 38

Five years have gone by since the coup attempt known as the Civil Commotion on Mars...

The Earth Government, meanwhile, continues its struggle to reclaim the surface of Earth for its citizens while reviving the population from the ravages of the Thirty Years' war.

The Earth Government also had to strengthen its forces since a show of power was necessary to restore and maintain order on the Martian colonies. These colonies were previously governed by former Earth Corporations that have since lost a great deal of their might.

As the Earth Government hurries to secure powerful forces, development of reunifying the underground population of Earth with the surface world has become hopelessly delayed.

Many factions within Earth's underground cities that were badly damaged by the Thirty Years' War started rebelling openly when they learned the situation between the Earth Government and Mars Corporations completely disregarded their needs. Armed uprisings increased dramatically.

Some of the surviving Corporations on Mars have become concerned with the growing interest that the Earth Government has been showing them as well as the increased deployment of arms and forces coming their direction. They too began to strengthen their military forces.

The current relationship between the Earth Government and Mars Corporations has worsened and the situation is growing more and more contentious.

WARNING MESSAGES

[Equipment Incomplete]

The AC is not equipped with one or more of the following minimum required parts: Head, Legs, Arms, Generator, Booster, FCS, Radiator.

[Arms Overweight]

The total weight of the arms exceeds the core's maximum load capacity. Change the core or equip lighter parts.

[Overweight]

The total weight of the equipped parts exceeds the leg parts' maximum load capacity. Change the leg part or equip lighter parts.

[Not Enough Energy]

The energy consumption of the equipped parts exceeds the generator's output. Change the generator or equip parts that consume less power.

PART DESCRIPTIONS

An AC consists of approximately 13 different parts.

CORE: The core serves as the foundation of your AC. The generator, FCS, inside parts and radiator are all installed on the core. The core can also be equipped with missile interception functions.

HEAD: The head is the housing for special functions such as biosensors and radars. The information provided by the head's computer will vary according to the type of head part that is equipped.

ARMS: There are two types of arm parts: standard arms that can be equipped with weapons such as guns and laser blades, and arms that are weapons in and of themselves.

LEGS: There are five types of leg parts: humanoid, reverse-jointed, four-legged, caterpillar and floating. These parts determine whether your AC will be heavily armed and slow, or light and agile.

GENERATOR: This affects the energy gauge and assembly of parts on the AC.

BOOSTER: This affects the AC's dash speed and aerial movement. Higher output yields greater speed performance.

BACK WEAPONS: Includes heavy artillery (missiles, rockets, etc.) as well as auxiliary equipment (radar).

RIGHT ARM WEAPONS: These include rifles capable of inflicting great damage with each firing, and machine guns, which are generally less formidable, but can be fired rapidly and continuously.

LEFT ARM WEAPONS: The left arm can be equipped with either a laser blade or energy shield. The energy gauge is depleted when either of these is activated.

FCS: These affect a weapon's range of sight and lock-on distance. They also improve missile lock-on performance.

INSIDE: Auxiliary weapons that are installed within the core itself. These include decoys designed to confuse enemy missile systems.

EXTENSION: Provide added variety to movement and attacks through the use of parts such as interceptor missiles and specialized boosters.

RADIATOR: Reduces the AC's temperature, which increases during the course of battle.

V. FAQ

The following is a collection of frequently asked questions by players new to the ARMORED CORE series. Use this as a guide if you are having trouble playing the game or advancing through the missions.

GARAGE

I can't start a mission! What do I do?

You cannot begin a mission if any of the following warning messages are displayed on the Assembly screen: EQUIPMENT INCOMPLETE, OVERWEIGHT, ARMS OVERWEIGHT, or NOT ENOUGH ENERGY. For more information on these messages and how to correct the status they indicate, please refer to Pg. 10 in this manual.

How can I avoid creating an overweight AC?

Basically, you need to balance the part load out of your AC. You cannot expect to equip a lightweight AC with an incredible array of heavy/powerful weaponry. Experimenting is the best way to get a feel for the limits you can go to when creating different types of ACs.

How do I know which parts to equip?

If you want an AC that moves fast, the WEIGHT of all equipped parts, the MOVING SPEED of the leg parts and the BOOST POWER of the booster will have great importance. On the other hand, if you want an AC that has exceptional defensive ability, AP (armor points), DEF SHELL (defense VS shell attacks) and DEF ENERGY (defense VS energy attacks) will be critical. For weapons, the three most important factors are ATTACK POWER, NUMBER OF AMMO and RANGE. Your AC's performance can be tested using the AC TEST option in the GARAGE. It is always a good idea to test your AC creations prior to taking them into actual combat. Experiment with different AC types to find the one that best suits your style of play.

EDIT EMBLEM

Emblems can be created or edited here and then affixed to your AC. Press the Ⓢ button to undo the most recent paint action. FAQ

MISSIONS

I can't find or defeat the enemy!

Radar is highly recommended equipment. The radar is activated when your AC is equipped with a shoulder-mounted radar, or a head part with a built in RADAR FUNCTION. Bring your opponents into view by positioning yourself so that the red triangles that represent them (on the radar) are at the top of the screen. The weapon sight will activate when an enemy is targeted within the confines of the yellow box displayed on-screen. This indicates that you are now "locked-on" to your opponent and this is obviously a good time to initiate an attack. The opponents early in the game are relatively weak and should not pose too much of a problem. Most importantly, remember to observe your opponent's movement and keep them in your sights.

I keep leaving the area of operations!

Many missions have a set area of operations. If your AC leaves this area the mission is considered a failure. The boundaries of the area of operations are indicated on the radar by a set of double lines (one yellow, one red). A warning will sound if your AC gets too close to these boundaries, indicating that you should turn back.

Why can't I dash or boost jump?

Dashing depletes the energy gauge displayed on the left-hand side of the screen. When this gauge reaches 0, your AC will not be able to use its booster or energy weapons until it has fully recharged. Keep an eye on the energy gauge at all times, and use your boosters only when necessary. Equipping a generator with a higher MAXIMUM CHARGE will increase the maximum value of the energy gauge. The amount the gauge is depleted by also depends on the booster used. If you find yourself constantly having to recharge the energy gauge, you should consider purchasing a more efficient booster. When you are out of energy and charging, but are in the middle of a fight, it will be difficult to avoid enemy attacks. A few things you can do to stay alive while waiting for the energy gauge to recharge are jump (not boost jump... most humanoid and reverse joint legs are equipped with a built-in jump function that does not use the boosters) and strafe as much as possible. Your AC will not be as agile as usual, but if you can keep moving you should be able to minimize damage.

I can't fire anymore! What's wrong?

Most weapons used in this game have a limited amount of ammunition (NUMBER OF AMMO). A weapon cannot be used once all its ammunition has been expended. You can minimize your ammo usage by only attacking when lock-on has been achieved. Another thing to consider are shell-based weapons VS energy-based weapons. An energy weapon has an advantage in that it doesn't require the purchase of ammunition, but the trade off is that it depletes the energy gauge each time it is fired. If the energy gauge is depleted, the weapon cannot be fired again until the energy gauge has been completely recharged.

It's too hard to avoid enemy attacks!

Experiment by incorporating movements such as jumping, dashing, flying and strafing in order to avoid attacks. Until you've had some time to perfect your piloting skills, it might be better to use an AC with good defensive abilities and make your opponent's destruction top priority.
